Moe Rotary Award Scholarship Project
This week I had the privilege of attending Narracan Gardens with the leadership students, Suzanne and Mandy to work with their aged clients. The students paired up with the clients to create a roadmap of important life events. It was fabulous to see the delight on everyone’s faces as stories were shared. Our students were patient and respectful as they posed questions to the clients and recorded their responses.

Mother’s Day Stall
Thank you to those fabulous families that have donated items for our staff or who have volunteered their time to assist with the stall. Students will have an opportunity to purchase gifts on Friday in the library.

3/4 Cold Write

*The 3/4s had a “Cold Write” today. A “Cold Write” is where the students don’t see the stimulus before the day of the write. For this write the students had to write an Exposition—Pursuasive Text. This is Owen Anderson’s response.

“Should Moe Have A Tree Climbing Place?”

I know we should have a tree climbing place because last time I went to a tree climbing place it was a challenge and I know most kids love a challenge.

It would teach kids how to climb as well and it would increase their learning skills.

It would teach kids how to wear a harness.

So make a tree climbing place and name it ‘Tree Tops’. Adults can do it too!
